Customer Service as one of 15 Excellence Award Finalists among 637 state employees that were nominated for the Governor's Excellence in Customer Service Award. Sixteen nominees were named Excellence Award Recipients.

Nominations and supporting documentation from all Georgia state agencies and field offices were judged by a statewide selection panel selected by the Governor's Customer Service Office. Maggie and fellow Finalists will be honored by the Governor's Office during a mid-winter ceremony.

Today, we are pleased to recognize Maggie for her exemplary service to the PSC and to applaud her for the outstanding PSC client assistance and internal leadership that lead to her state excellence recognition.

Maggie Cole is the PSC's Employee of the Year and was nominated by the agency's Customer Service Team for the Governor's Customer Service Excellence Award. She is the consummate employee and example of exemplary customer service for Georgia. Maggie is humble about her work saying, "My job gives me the opportunity to make a contribution to quality education in Georgia".

Maggie began her state career in 1966. She knows "a lot about a lot" and is a primary "Go To" person for every type of educator certification question and call from in- and outside our agency and state.

Twenty-three years of successful service to Georgia customers and a briefer private sector stint have equipped Maggie to courteously and responsively accomplish her responsibilities.

She has held administrative support and middle management positions in the PSC since 1997 and previously, in the Office of the Secretary of State and Department of Education and in the Georgia Board of Examiners. In the PSC, our customers and staff ask Maggie for information and assistance and they leave her feeling "heard" and educated. Her most recent evaluation noted, "To-date, Maggie has never received a complaint from callers or visitors..."

Maggie, you are a most deserving Finalist Honoree for the 2008 Governor's Customer Service Excellence Award. We are proud of you. Cyndy Stephens, the PSC's Customer Service Champion, the entire Commission and staff and I want to recognize you with this Commendation of Excellence and congratulate you with a small gift.

Thank you for all you have given to all of us and the work of the Professional Standards Commission! Chair Wilkes, Kelly Henson and Cyndy Stephens presented Maggie Cole with a gift and the award.

ACTION: Approved

MOTION: (Powell / West) To adopt the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law reached by the Administrative Law Judge. The Commission rejected the recommended sanction of a Reprimand. The Commission believed that the Educator's breaches of the Code of Ethics, as demonstrated in the record and as outlined in the Administrative Law Judge's Initial Decision, were of such magnitude so as to warrant a greater sanction. Despite warnings previously received and acknowledged regarding relationships with female students, the Educator nonetheless engaged in an inappropriate relationship with Frances H. which is demonstrated by calls made over a six week period with no substantive professional basis, the volume and timing of the calls, the over-familiarity with the female student and the Educator's attempts to avoid the student's mother. This behavior constitutes an inappropriate relationship that warrants a sanction greater than a reprimand. Therefore, the Commission hereby ordered that the Georgia educator certificate held by Curtis Wheeler be Suspended for a period of one year. The period of suspension shall begin on December 1, 2008 and shall conclude on December 1, 2009.
